POLITICAL COORDINATOR INTERN

The Denver Area Labor Federation (DALF) is the umbrella organization for union members and their families in Adams, Arapahoe, Denver, Douglas, and Jefferson Counties. Our organization strives to elect working family-friendly public officials and to promote and implement policy that builds real power and change for working people across the metro area.

RESPONSIBILITIES INCLUDE:

- Develop tracking and monitoring system for all municipal and county elected offices in Adams, Arapahoe, Denver, Douglas, and Jefferson Counties.
- Coordinate logistics of the labor council's political campaigns (inviting candidates to participate in our endorsement process, scheduling interviews and briefings, gathering candidate questionnaires and bios for our political committee to review, and organizing and implementing grassroots political work like phone banking and precinct walking)
- Assist in development of the labor council's online and social media programs
- Help build the Young Worker Project, which is part of a national effort to energize young people in the labor movement in fresh and creative ways

DESIRABLE QUALIFICATIONS:

- Commitment to social and economic justice- interest or experience with unions or other social change movements a plus
- Strong interest in local government and local issues.
- Ability to work a minimum of ten hours per week
- Ability and willingness to take independent initiative as well as work well in teams
- Comfort working with people of different backgrounds and in a fluid and informal working environment constantly responding to new developments
- Strong computer skills useful, including website design and online social media experience

Women and people of color encouraged to apply
Internships are unpaid, but college credit may be available
Average hours 15-20 per week
